

I have finished my series of 12 paintings depicting birds I feel represent the essence of South Texas. All the birds in the series are native to my home area, and most are somewhat rare elsewhere in North America. Included are the White-tailed Hawk, Yellow-billed Cuckoo, Great Kiskadee, Green Jay, Crested Caracara, White-winged Dove, Altimira Oriole, Long-billed Thrasher, Ringed Kingfisher, Reddish Egret, Roadrunner and Red-tailed Hawk. These pieces are now part of a series titled Signature Birds of South Texas.

I'm offering reproduction prints for sale in four sizes, all of which allow the birds to come out life-sized. The Hawks and other large birds will be 22" x 28" (except the Reddish Egret, which is 24" x 36"). The medium-sized birds like the Cuckoo will be 16" x 20" and small birds like the Kiskadee, Dove and Oriole will be 11" x 14". All prints will be made on high-quality satin paper and will be trimmed and ready to frame. I'll be shipping the larger pieces in cardboard tubes, the smallest in padded envelopes.

I am also offering NoteCard sets and Calendars which include jpeg images of the paintings.
