

I recently completed a series of 12 acrylic paintings, depicting birds I consider as Signature Birds of South Texas. So, I used the phrase in the title for the series. Included are the White-tailed Hawk, Red-tailed Hawk, Roadrunner, Reddish Egret, Ringed Kingfisher, Great Kiskadee, Green Jay, White-winged Dove, Altimira Oriole, Long-billed Thrasher, Yellow-billed Cuckoo and Crested Caracara. All the original paintings create life-sized images of the birds.

I also produced a 2014 calendar using jpegs made from the paintings. The calendar includes a brief description of each bird, and the monthly pages indicate Holidays and moon phases. Price of the calendar is $14.99, which includes cost, tax and shipping. Additionally, I'm offering NoteCards made from the paintings, and reproductions of them too.....To view all the products related to the South Texas Signature Birds series of paintings, click on the Captain Kev's Products page. In the box describing the calendars, I've provided a link to a pdf file used to generate the product. I've also created a link to the calendar pdf in the list of blog titles. To view all the reproductions, see the original blog referring to the South Texas Signature Birds series.....
